

Test name: Priorities

Question 1 of 20

Telling other people no is one of the hardest things to do.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 2 of 20

Telling myself NO is always easy, that's why I never have difficulty with priorities.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 3 of 20

God is always screaming for our attention, so it's hard to crowd Him out of our lives.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 4 of 20

As consumers, we tend to give God our left overs.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 5 of 20

Francis Chan says everyone has enough time and money to give to God.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 6 of 20

The basics of Christianity revolves around pleasing God and not ourselves.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 7 of 20

It is absurd to think that God is waiting to follow us around, see what we want to do, and bless our plans. We must instead seek Him, follow Him and obey his commands.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 8 of 20

In the beginning...God. That's how we fix our priority problem.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 9 of 20

Haggai 1:2 says the people were not ready to act for God. Verse 1:3 says God let the people wait a while to act on His behalf.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 10 of 20

It is not possible to insult God with a token of our left over time, money, or efforts. He receives anything happily.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 11 of 20

The Bible says to get your house in order which speaks of priorities including finances, time management, and more.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 12 of 20

Francis Chan talks about a little man with a little car who puts Jesus in the trunk.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 13 of 20

When our priorities are out of whack we are actually making God our slave.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 14 of 20

When it comes to our spiritual life, we relinquish any responsibility and follow the wind. This is a great way to set priorities.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 15 of 20

I Haggai 1:12 - 14 the people kept on sinning and did not change.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 16 of 20

Craig G calls it idolatry when we try to set the right priorities and put God first.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 17 of 20

We can put our hobbies, relationships and personal preferences in check every day, week, month, and years ahead.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 18 of 20

We will find rest for our souls when we keep life simple and cast our cares on Jesus.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 19 of 20

Many people are sick when we feel the need to be doing lots of things all the time.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 20 of 20

Psalm 46:10 says be still and know that I am God. It is hard to be still 5 minutes a day.

- A) True
 B) False